This study, facilitated by George Harper, provides an opportunity to see these mysterious Old Testament characters in a new light.

Pilgrims' Progress

Lounge

We will continue reading the book of Romans during Epiphany 2019.

Romans shares Paul's attempt to explain how this new expression of faith is rooted in Judaism but is available to all of humanity. As Paul writes to the new community of Christians in Rome, he explores the concepts of salvation, the power of God, and grace. Many biblical scholars consider Romans to be Paul's most important theological treatise.
